

Junior/Senior Banquet Dress Code:

These are the expectations for all who attend Southwest's banquet, including dates/friends who do not attend Southwest.

These expectations will be enforced and checked at the door by class sponsors. If a student would like to have their clothing checked before the banquet, they may do that through the class sponsors.

Ladies for banquet and dance:	Gentlemen for banquet and dance:
Modest, appropriate back-lines are expected	Formal dress is expected
No cleavage or bare midriffs showing	No shorts, collarless shirts, or sagging pants
Short dresses and slits need to be at least fingertip length	Suits or dress shirts/tie/dress pants are expected. Tuxes are permitted.
See-through or sheer dresses are not allowed
The regular school dress code is in effect for the after-prom party	The regular school dress code is in effect for the after-prom party

Junior/Senior Banquet Dress Code:

These are the expectations for all who attend Southwest's banquet, including dates/friends who do not attend Southwest.

These expectations will be enforced and checked at the door by class sponsors. If a student would like to have their clothing checked before the banquet, they may do that through the class sponsors.

Ladies for banquet and dance:	Gentlemen for banquet and dance:
Modest, appropriate back-lines are expected	Formal dress is expected
No cleavage or bare midriffs showing	No shorts, collarless shirts, or sagging pants
Short dresses and slits need to be at least fingertip length	Suits or dress shirts/tie/dress pants are expected. Tuxes are permitted.
See-through or sheer dresses are not allowed
The regular school dress code is in effect for the after-prom party	The regular school dress code is in effect for the after-prom party